CURRENT RESEARCH IN NLP: Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 PROCEEDINGS OF THE 2008 & 2010 RESEARCH CONFERENCES

'Current Research in NLP' Vol. 1 and 2 contain proceedings from the International NLP Research Conferences held at the University of Surrey in 2008 and the University of Cardiff in 2010.

The papers in these journals contribute to the widely-acknowledged need for a research-minded approach to NLP. The papers illustrate the welcome diversity of NLP usage and include papers by both academic and practitioner researchers, across sectors including education, health, business and psychotherapy. They report variously on NLP practice; conceptual issues; and applications of NLP as research methods.
